UNI-SELECT EXPANDS ITS BUSINESS IN FLORIDA

Boucherville, September 19, 2011 - Uni-Select is pleased to announce it has entered into an agreement with Parts Depot, Inc. to purchase certain assets in the state of Florida. After the transaction has closed, Uni-Select will open new stores under its Auto-Plus trademark in those locations where leases have been assumed. Uni-Select expects to add 39 points of sale and 5 distribution centers, adding a substantial presence in the Florida market to its existing operations.

« This transaction is in line with our strategy of continuing to expand our footprint as we continue our growth in the U.S. market. The state of Florida is one of the most important automotive markets in the U.S. and Uni-Select's entry into this market is a significant step in our development plan. » offered Richard G. Roy, President and Chief Executive Officer of Uni-Select Inc. « This project is also a great complement to our latest acquisition of FinishMaster and its 27 locations in Florida » added Mr. Roy.

« This development is exciting news for PDI's customers and employees. Uni-Select will offer employment to the vast majority of our employees and will provide strong partnership to customers allowing them to compete and grow in the automotive aftermarket industry. » commented Rollie Olson, Chairman and CEO of Parts Depot.

This new business is expected to add annual sales of US$87M. The transaction is expected to close at the end of October; closing remains subject to customary closing conditions.
